JOHN WOOD'S CHECKLIST OF BALTIMORE NEEDS

- ☒ An aggressive program to provide employment for all and promotional opportunities in private and public business
- ☒ Firm, fair, and effective crime control directed at removing the roots of problems, particularly among youth, and an accelerated-equitable-humanized criminal justice system
- ☒ A housing program based on adequate inspections—aimed at preservation and rehabilitation—supported by a strong rent and housing court
- ☒ Improved education emphasizing the needs of children—cutting truancy, and depoliticizing the system
- ☒ More responsive provision of city services through efficient, economic operation of city bureaucracy and representation for all groups on every board or agency of local government
- ☒ Strong efforts to secure federal and state funding to relieve the burden of the city taxpayer
- ☒ Convincing management, labor, professionals, business, residents, and commuters alike that they have a vital stake in the city's prosperity
- ☒ Better transportation, health care, and recreational programs

JOHN WOOD IS NOT DIVISIVE.
HE WILL WORK, NOT JUST TALK,
WITH ALL PEOPLE TO ACHIEVE THESE GOALS.
